STEPHEN HAMBLETT

Stephen Hamblett, the highly regarded publisher of The Providence Journal from 1987 to 1999, guided his newspaper and company through a dramatic period of growth and innovation. Stephen was a true New Englander. Born in Nashua, N.H., and educated at Harvard, he spent his entire career at the Journal. He was a staunch supporter of the newsroom, and its passion for public service and freedom of information. On his watch, the Journal won the Pulitzer Prize for Investigative Reporting. The Stephen Hamblett First Amendment Award is a tribute to his stewardship and his legacy.

Proceeds for this event will go to the New England First Amendment Coalition, which defends, promotes and expands freedom of information and public access to government and the work it does. NEFAC is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation and your ticket purchase is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.
